

UDL in 15 Minutes Transcript

Finding what you need

LOUI: Hello, and welcome to UDL in 15 minutes where educators discuss their experiences with UDL. I'm Loui Lord Nelson, UDL author and leader. Most of us around the world are still under stay-at-home orders and are reaching out to students in a variety of ways. I hope you know that your efforts are recognized and celebrated. And thank you for your continued efforts around your use of UDL.

Because we're all home and because everything has shifted dramatically, it feels like information sharing has exploded. I've definitely been part of it with my increase in podcast production so, for this week I decided to step back and send out an updated version of my easy-to-access chart that organizes my podcast by grade and/or subject. It's posted under Episode 41: Finding What you need.

If you haven't yet, be sure to subscribe to this podcast via iTunes or wherever you like to access your podcasts. With almost 20,000 listens, UDL in 15 Minutes is becoming a trusted source for your stories about UDL.

And, to add to your UDL experience you can find supplemental materials like an image montage with closed captioning, that montage with audio descriptions, a transcript, and an associated blog at my website www.theudlapproach.com/media. Finally, if you have a story to share about UDL implementation for UDL in 15 Minutes, contact me through www.theUDLapproach.com. And thanks to everyone for your work in revolutionizing education through UDL and making it our goal to develop expert learners.
